Please try to answer at least two questions: (1) why you believe that your research question is such an important to answer; and (2) how other scholars have or have not answered, or how you think your answer will give a contribution to the existing scholarship on the subject.

Methods

Provide sufficient details to explain the research process which includes the type of research, method or approach, data collection technique, informant / respondent, data validity test and data analysis used.

Results (or Results and Discussion)

Results should be clear and concise.

Discussion (Book Antiqua 12 pt Bold)

In this section you may discuss every aspect of the issue one by one. It is necessary to build argument and to provide original data discussed and compared to research and works of other scholars. The way to discuss an issue here is by combining the data and the discussion.

The discussion is highlighted in the title and subtitles of this section. In addition, this section should significantly explore the research findings without redundant and long direct quotation.
